DOCKET NO. 2017-0022 CPE

DATE: March 13, 2017

VOLUNTARY SURRENDER

I, BEVERLEY K. PALEY, hold License No. CPA026086 to practice as a certified public accountant in the State of Georgia pursuant to O.C.G.A. Chapter 3, Title 43, as amended. I hereby freely, knowingly, and voluntarily surrender said license to the Georgia State Board of Accountancy. I acknowledge that this surrender shall have the same effect as a revocation of my license, and I knowingly forfeit and relinquish all right, title and privilege of practicing public accountancy in the State of Georgia, unless and until such time as my license may be reinstated, in the sole discretion of the Board.

I understand that I have a right to a hearing in this matter, and I hereby freely, knowingly, and voluntarily waive such right. I also understand that should any request for reinstatement be considered by the Board, the Board shall have access to the entire investigative file in this matter.

This surrender shall become effective immediately upon acceptance thereof by the Board. I understand that this document will be considered to be a public record entered as the final disposition of disciplinary proceedings presently pending against me, and that this action shall be considered to be and may be recorded as a final order of the Board.

the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are under 15 years of age is expected to increase by 1.5 billion (United Nations, 1994). The rapid increase in the number of children in the world has led to a growing concern about the health and well-being of children. This concern has led to a growing interest in the study of child health and development. The purpose of this paper is to review the current state of knowledge about child health and development, and to discuss the implications for future research and practice.

the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are illiterate has increased from 1.2 billion to 1.5 billion. The number of illiterate people in the world is projected to reach 1.7 billion by the year 2015. The number of illiterate people in the world is projected to reach 1.7 billion by the year 2015.
